Current Ministry

Chris and Peggy are appointed missionaries with the Assemblies of God U.S. Missions Intercultural Ministries Department, focusing on Native American ministries. Our Native American neighbors are hurting people overcome with bitterness and rejection, and suffer from alcoholism, drug addiction, disease, and suicide at a far greater rate than any other ethnic group in America. With 601 Tribes and over 4.1 million Native Americans in our nation, less than five percent claim to be Christian. Chris and Peggy believe God wants to restore hope, healing, and freedom to Native Americans through the Gospel and love of Jesus Christ. They presently minister among the Mashpee Wampanoag in Massachusetts where they started a church and several ministries reaching out to the Native community.

Previous Ministry

Chris graduated from Zion Bible Institute in Barrington, RI, where he earned a Bachelor's degree. He ministered for over fifteen years as a youth and children's pastor. Chris served for five years in church planting on the Spirit Lake Sioux Reservation. He has also ministered on the Blackfoot, Crow, and Chippewa Reservations in Northwestern United States.

Peggy earned her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Vanguard University, an Assemblies of God college. She also worked with the Bureau of Indian Affairs to recruit and train employees to work on reservations in North America. She has led worship and been involved in music ministry and children's ministry for many years.
